

Funding for Literacy and Numeracy and English for Speakers of Other Languages

Workplace Literacy and Numeracy (WPL&N) – Employer-led

WPL&N – Employer-led funding is provided to employers to set up a sustainable literacy and numeracy programme to increase the literacy and numeracy skills of employees that reflect the needs and priorities of their workplace.

Workplace Literacy and Numeracy (WPL&N) – tertiary education organisation (TEO)-led

WPL&N – TEO-led funding is to develop the literacy and numeracy skills of employees. It is delivered by TEOs in a workplace context in order to increase the productivity of companies.

Intensive Literacy and Numeracy (ILN)

ILN supports the intensive provision of literacy and numeracy learning opportunities to learners with low literacy and numeracy skills within an appropriately structured environment.

Intensive Literacy and Numeracy – English for Speakers of Other Languages (ILN – ESOL)

ILN – ESOL provides fees-free intensive ESOL learning opportunities, particularly for migrants, to help adult learners gain the literacy and numeracy skills needed to progress to further study or the workplace.

Refugee English Fund

Refugee English funding supports refugees to reach a level of English that allows them to undertake further education, enter the workplace, and feel comfortable using English through fees-free access to programmes leading to an ESOL qualification.

English for Migrants

This Immigration New Zealand fund, administered by the TEC, enables migrants to New Zealand to pre-purchase English language tuition to help them settle into New Zealand communities, the workplace, or progress into further education.

Adult Literacy Educator Grants

Adult Literacy Educator Grants build the capability of educators and trainers to effectively teach adults literacy and numeracy skills by assisting them to access appropriate qualifications.
